About Clear View High School:

Clear View High School is a school of choice designed to serve the academic needs of the secondary at-risk student population of the District. The Clear View academic model accomplishes this through smaller class sizes and one-on-one attention, innovative instruction, extra tutoring, opportunities for remedial work and credit recovery, no homework, programs which lead to job certifications in the area of health care and cosmetology, and a strong support system in place to help students through issues that can make the high school years challenging. Students must apply to attend Clear View High School and are interviewed for acceptance.
